BETTY WOODMAN ends business career

After six years' service as cashier for the J. C. Penney Company store here, Mrs. Betty Woodman today retired from the firm to give full time to being a housewife. Her position has been taken by Vivian Grant, who was promoted from the sales force. Manager Hillman Lee paid high tribute to Mrs. Woodman for her "faithful, reliable services and loyalty to the firm."

Mrs. Woodman's husband is employed at the Columbia Steel plant. She is a native daughter of this city and a graduate of Torrance high school.

A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Wood, San Pedro, Saturday.

DIM LIGHTS

Thirty-five states, including California, have laws requiring that headlights be dimmed when another vehicle approaches from the opposite direction.

Beauty and You

by PATRICIA LINDSAY

Heavy brows with natural arch add much beauty to LINDA DARNELL'S eyes. She keeps them nicely groomed.

Preserve Natural Eyebrow for True Facial Beauty

ALONG with pink face powder and cupid bow lips, the pin-point eyebrow line has passed into fading history. Today beauticians strive to keep their natural brow line, trim and sleek, and this is easily achieved with four little tools—a magnifying mirror, a tweezer, a brush and a darkening pencil.

Brunettes with dark brows can easily attain brow beauty. They merely have to pluck out the stray hairs over the bridge of the nose, and under the natural line. Simply pull out the stragglers which make the line uneven looking. During the daytime dark brows need no coloring, but at night a light touching up with a dark crayon makes them more sleek.

Blondes with almost imperceptible brows should use a dark brown pencil in short, light strokes. Never draw a hard line in one bold sweep of the pencil. Leave the ends of the brows, and the beginnings, a bit lighter than the arch, so they will not look artificial. If one prefers to darken light brows with a brush and mascara, instead of with the pencil, the brows should be brushed the wrong way, when applying the color, and allowed to dry slightly before they are smoothed down with a clean brow brush.

How to Pluck Brows

Some girls dread the tweezer as much as a dentist's pliers.

Lenten Services Are Announced

Beginning next Wednesday, a series of three mid-week Lenten services will be conducted at St. Andrew's Episcopal church. The services will be held at 7:30 p. m. and will be followed by a reception in the parish hall.

The speakers will be visiting clergymen. Rev. John Krumm of Compton will speak Feb. 7 following an Ash Wednesday service which will be the Litany.

Rev. Richard I. S. Parker will speak on Feb. 21 and Rev. Stephen C. Clark will speak Feb. 28.

Noted Speaker Will Address Church Club Here

Dr. Arthur Corey, an executive of the Los Angeles Teachers' Association, will address the Episcopal Men's club of Torrance at their meeting next Tuesday evening. He has chosen the subject of citizenship for the occasion. Persons who have heard Dr. Corey speak describe him as a man of unusual ability.

Trio Rebekahs Initiate Lodge

Trio Rebekah Lodge, with the new Noble Grand, Thelma Whitacre presiding, initiated four candidates Wednesday, Jan. 24. The new members are Mesdames Fay Slate, Ruth Simmons, Florence Meng, and Eva Rozell.

Following initiation refreshments were served by Mrs. Juanita Parsons, Mrs. Pearl Montoye, Hugo Schmidt, and Carl Ross. Announcement was made that Mrs. Ethel Heinzenman, deputy president, would visit the lodge unofficially on Feb. 11th.

because plucking brows can be very painful if one's skin and nerves are sensitive. Try massaging the brows with a bit of rich face cream, or white vaseline before plucking, and apply a hot face cloth to melt the cream before you use the tweezers. Then draw the skin taut between thumb and first finger. Plucking will be almost painless then.

The tweezer has wrought plenty of havoc in unskilled hands. Many a girl who plucks carelessly looks like a startled fawn. Never pluck the brows from the top. Decide to follow the natural arch and pluck from below. The normal brow line is one which follows the curve of your eyelid, so avoid distorting your natural curve and turning it into a bird wing or half-moon arch, unless you are a true exotic or think a baby stars' becoming!

Selecting Tweezers

You might ask to see the various styles of tweezers—there are several. One tweezer which many girls find very helpful is shaped similar to a pair of scissors and so bent that one can see under it while plucking which is a great help. Another tweezer is a clicking, mechanical one which is sure to get the straggler you aim at. But this tweezer should be used only by steady, sure hands, for it can strip the brow quickly of too many hairs if one is not careful.

Be certain that the tweezer select is true in its grip. A tweezer which is bent slightly out of form will make brow plucking a painful chore!

Altar Guild Delights Throng with Presentation of "Good Old Days"

Ever sat down in a corner and turned the pages of an old family album and wondered just who would dare wear that? Well, such was the comment passed around the parish hall of St. Andrew's Episcopal church Tuesday evening, when the Altar Guild presented "The Old Family Album."

BRIDE... Miss Frances Virginia Hornbrook, daughter of U. S. Minister to Costa Rica William Hornbrook and Mrs. Hornbrook, who on Feb. 1 will be married to Clarence R. Strook of Salt Lake City. President Leon Cortez of Costa Rica will head official assemblage at ceremony.

As Emma Quaggin, in slow, easy manner turned the pages and commented on each one, the cast of characters emerged to the delight of all assembled.

Fern Cheesman was cast as mother and grandmother, Herbert Bishop Sr. was most imposing as father, Julia Cucci as Aunt Paulina was a most amusing character and vied with Lou Deisinger, as Baby Ned, for honors as the funniest page from the album.

Others in the cast were Fred Quaggin, Charles Stewart, Hugh Barnes, Greenwood Rhone, Virginia Bark, Velora Murphy, Mildred Harder, Robert Ashley, Herbert Bishop Jr., Anna Sandstrom, Lucille Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stewart, Edward Rhone, Fred Harder and Fred Quaggin.

Mrs. Irma Carstens, soprano sang "Long, Long Ago." Mrs. Addie M. Parks played the piano accompaniment.

Activities

By BETH PAIGE

Last Thursday evening at our club was a very enjoyable occasion. Beginning with the pollack dinner with 35 attending a splendid social time was held. Welcome was given Mrs. Laura Davis who has just returned from a visit with her sister at La Junta, Colo. where she experienced a temperature of 22° below zero and 18 inches of snow.

We listened to a splendid address by City Attorney John E. McCall on "Some Problems of City Government." Going back to the earliest periods and tracing the needs and development of government down thru the years to the present time, he made it a very interesting and instructive study. Will H. Hoover, of Graham Club No. 1, gave an entertaining discussion of the present economic conditions and their relation to the Townsend Plan.

Visitors from clubs in Graham, Los Angeles, Gardena, Hermosa Beach and Redondo Beach were present. One of them, Mr. Callahan of Redondo, 82, gave a series of readings. His appearance, clear eyes and fine diction do not indicate his four score years. Games closed the evening's activities.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Joe La May, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Hazzard, Mrs. Beth Paige, Mr. Nelson and Vernon Glidden were visitors at the Gardena club. Tonight we will enjoy a fine musical program under the direction of Mrs. Beth Paige.

Music Instruction Offered at City Recreation Center

Dale Riley, City recreation director, said today that the recreation department is in a position to hold orchestra practice and instruction and also to teach music to groups of ten or more under W. P. A. supervision. Anyone interested may attend an open meeting, Monday evening, Feb. 5, from 7 to 9 p. m. at the recreation center, 2410 Arlington avenue. A plan is under way for organizing a shepherds' pipe orchestra if there is sufficient interest shown.

A kite flying contest has been planned for Easter vacation. Participants at the recreation centers are planning and making novel and unusual kites. Recreation centers are now open from 10 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. with a night class until 10 p. m. on Tuesday evenings at the Arlington Recreation Center. Card parties are in progress Monday evenings at Walteria and Thursday evenings at 2708 Carson street, at 8 p. m.

Police Attending Training School

At least two members of the local police department are enrolled in the weekly classes of the Inglewood Police Training School, operated in cooperation with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Police Chief John Stroh said today. Classes are held every Tuesday afternoon and evening and will continue to June 25.
